

AMENDMENTS TO THE CLAIMS

With the claim amendments discussed below, amended claim 1 and original claims 2-4 remain in the application.

1. (currently amended) A deck mop comprising:
 - a. an elongated handle;
 - b. a unitary mop body with a transverse width and a longer longitudinal length and a plurality of absorbent material strands attached to and extending from the mop body, said mop body comprising receiving means to accept and secure the handle to the mop body, the mop body further comprising a front wall and a rear ~~walls~~ wall, the walls extending substantially the full longitudinal length of the mop body and being separated by and connected to an intervening top wall which extends supports the receiving means and which has a uniform transverse width which is substantially the same as the width of the mop body, said top wall traversing the length of the body and extending between the front and rear walls, said top wall supporting the receiving means the front and rear walls extending substantially from the top wall to the mop strands;
 - c. scrubber means for cleaning ingrained, soiled surfaces, said scrubber means having an abrasive surface; and
 - d. support means for connecting the scrubber means to the front wall, said support means comprising a plurality of rib means extending outwardly from the front wall and between the front wall and the scrubber means for maintaining the abrasive surface of the scrubber means in a downwardly facing, stationary position in relation to the mop body.
2. (original) The swab mop as in claim 1 in which the front and rear walls are parallelly aligned.

3. (original) The swab mop as in claim 1 in which the abrasive surface is positioned at an oblique angle to the front wall to which it is maintained.

4. (original) The swab mop as in claim 1 wherein the abrasive surface comprises an abrasive pad.